

My Father Died a Month Ago

My father died a month ago
And left me all his riches:
A feather bed and a wooden leg
And a pair of leather breeches.

He left me a teapot without a spout,
A cup without a handle,
A tobacco pipe without a lid
And half a farthing candle.